

To be used with the corresponding presentation

Poppy day

Today we remember that lots of people have been killed in wars. Lots of people are still being killed in fighting all over the world.

In a minute we will be quiet. While we are quiet, let's quietly ask God to bring peace to our world. Also, let's us quietly pray for those who are sad because people they love have been killed or hurt.

First let's pray... Your response is: AND GOD IS SAD

Reader

There have been lots of wars and fighting in the world.

All

AND GOD IS SAD

Reader

Lots of people are still getting killed and hurt

All

AND GOD IS SAD

Reader

Lots of people have no where to live because their houses have been broken.

All

AND GOD IS SAD

Reader

Lost of people are frightened and sad because of war

All

AND GOD IS SAD

Silence for 1 min or what is appropriate at 11.00.....

Your response is: Lord Jesus bring peace.

Reader

Lord Jesus we pray for our world

All

Lord Jesus bring peace.

Reader

Where these is fighting

All

Lord Jesus bring peace.

Reader

In Iraq, Afghanistan, and many other countries

All

Lord Jesus bring peace.

Reader

Lord Jesus we pray for ourselves, and for all the different places where we live

All

Lord Jesus bring peace.

Reader

Lord Jesus please bring peace to our world. May we be peaceful people. Peaceful where we live, peaceful to the people in our houses, peaceful to our carers, and peaceful to all we meet.

Amen

Edward Kerr

November 2006.

<http://www.fcc.uk.net>

This is published under the "Creative Commons Attribution-Noncommercial-Share Alike 2.5 License."

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/2.5/>